

CAMBERWELL
GRAMMAR SCHOOL

PLUS

PRE-LOVED
UNIFORM SHOP

The Camberwell Grammar PLUS was formed by parents who wanted to provide a means by which they could buy or sell recycled uniforms.

The PLUS operates as a subcommittee of the Camberwell Grammar School Parents' Association and is a parent run operation, which raises funds for the school at the same time as performing a much-needed service.

Uniforms are sold on consignment, 75% of the selling price is paid to the seller, 25% is retained, along with the proceeds of donated clothing to assist in funding various school projects.

The PLUS is open during term every Wednesday from 3.00pm to 4.30pm and every Saturday from 10.00am to 12.00pm (excluding Public Holiday weekends). Payment is by cash, cheque or EFT.

In recent years, we have been able to recycle clothes which have remained in the shop for a long period or are no longer current uniform. Such items are given to various charities, including a local Rotary Club which helps provide assistance to communities in East Timor.

The PLUS is always looking for volunteers to assist in the running of the shop.
