MONDAY 23 NOVEMBER

A reminder that Monday 23 November is a Middle School student free day.

Following their end of year examinations, students in Years 6 to 8 will not be required at School on Monday 23 November, as Middle School Staff will be engaged in Professional Development.

I hope that you were able to enjoy a restful day with your family or friends over the long weekend.

Our Year 12 students continued to sit their examinations over the break. Reports so far suggest that they are feeling generally confident and that the papers have been fair. Our Year 11 students will commence their examinations next Monday 16 November, and our Years 7 and 8 examinations begin on Wednesday 18 November.

Parent Feedback Survey

Thank you to all the parents who have completed our Parent Survey. If you have not yet done so, I would be grateful if you could find the time to complete it (which should only take a few minutes) by Friday 13 November 2015. The following link will take you directly to the survey: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CGSparentsurvey2015

The questions have been set by ACARA, but please feel free to give us feedback about any aspect of life at school.

End of Year Arrangements

Attached to this Bulletin are examination dates and end of year arrangements for students in Years 9 to 11. As we enter this final busy stage of the year, I encourage you to enter the relevant dates from this flyer into your diaries. The examination schedules and study information can also be found on the Parent Portal under ‘Curriculum’. Please note that throughout the examination period students are to be in full school uniform.

University of Melbourne Kwong Lee Dow Scholar

I am delighted to announce that Brian Kim (Year 11), was awarded a Kwong Lee Dow Scholarship from the University of Melbourne for 2016. The University of Melbourne Kwong Lee Dow Young Scholars Program is named in honour of the former Vice-Chancellor of the University of Melbourne, Professor Kwong Lee Dow, and is an academic enrichment program designed to support Year 11 and Year 12 Victorian secondary school students. While still at school, the program offers opportunities for participation in workshops and seminars delivered by leading researchers and teachers.

Service of Nine Lessons and Carols

I warmly invite all School families to a special Service of Nine Lessons and Carols on Wednesday 9 December at 8.00pm in St Mark’s Church, Burke Road, Camberwell. This will be Mr Trevor Henley’s last conducting commitment at Camberwell Grammar, and I am sure that St Mark’s will be overflowing with families and friends. Following the Service, the Friends of Music group will host a supper in the Church hall, and all members of the congregation are warmly invited to join us. This is a lovely way to end the school year and a final opportunity to acknowledge the extraordinary work Trevor has done at CGS.

The Junior School will have its Christmas Service in St Mark’s Church at 11.00am on Thursday 10 December. This too is a lovely service involving our younger students, and will be their final event for the school year. Parents of Junior School boys are also warmly invited to attend.
Year 10 Berlin Student - Request for a CGS Host family in 2016

Moritz Boehm arrived with his family from Germany earlier this year and studied at CGS during first term in Year 9. He was a popular boy with very good English who particularly enjoyed Hockey and Latin. His parents are keen for Moritz to study a full year here in 2016 and have enquired as to whether a CGS family might be prepared to host the boy during his stay. If this is of interest please contact the Registrar Mr Peter O’Connell for further details on registrar@cgs.vic.edu.au or 9835 1739.

House Swimming Carnival

We had a great day today at MSAC as the 2015 House Swimming Championships were contested. Well done to all participants in what was an excellent community occasion. Results will be released in next week’s Bulletin.

Transition

In the coming weeks we will be turning our attention to ‘Transition’. Our current Year 6 boys will be joined by their new 2016 schoolmates on Tuesday 8 December. At this important Orientation Day the boys will meet with their Year 7 Form Teacher and spend time with their form group. They will enjoy Art and Science classes before joining the whole year level under the Atrium for a barbecue lunch. In the afternoon the boys will be involved in some tabloid sports with their House groups. I am very much looking forward to welcoming our current and new parents to the School that morning. We will commence 8.30am in the Performing Arts Centre, with morning tea available for parents at 9.30am.

On this same day current Year 7 boys will be involved in a ‘Stepping Up’ excursion with their 2016 Year 8 Form Teacher and classmates. More specific details and an itinerary for each group will be available in the coming weeks.

For our Year 8 boys, their final day in Middle School will be on Friday 27 November. After lunch they will have a final farewell with their Form Teacher before meeting as a whole year level to discuss the logistics of Camp Week. The boys will then join their Senior School Head of House in order to prepare their packs for camp. After the Camp Week the boys are officially members of Senior School, and will be involved in various transition activities during the final week of school. More details about this process will be presented at the Year 8 Camp and Transition Information Evening on Wednesday 11 November, commencing at 7.30pm in the PAC.

We will also look forward to welcoming our 2016 Year 6 boys to Middle School through various transition activities in the coming weeks.

CGS Book Exchange Helps Kids Across Melbourne

While the purpose of the annual CGS Book Exchange is to give school families a chance to exchange second-hand text books, it also benefits children across Melbourne, through our support of the ForCHILDREN charity.

ForCHILDREN was started to help children who might otherwise be unable to afford their school books. Partnering with Les Twentyman’s 20th Man Youth Fund and their ‘Back to School’ program, ForCHILDREN has recently completed recycling text books, calculators and stationery, from 2014, including many books which were unsold at the end of the CGS 2014 Book Sale. Writing to FoL recently, Helen Hayward from ForCHILDREN thanked the CGS school community saying, “Your donations have enabled us to provide current edition text books to 267 disadvantaged students from 24 different cultural groups attending 73 separate secondary schools.”

We will be partnering with ForCHILDREN again in 2015 and, in more good news, will this year introduce a ‘donation’ box where good quality books which are NOT able to be sold at the CGS Book Sale can be placed for distribution via ForCHILDREN’s new initiative to provide text books to children in Morobe Province, Papua New Guinea.

Second Hand Book Exchange

The CGS Second Hand Book Exchange is back on 10 December 2015, offering you a fantastic opportunity to sell unwanted text books and get a head-start on your son’s 2016 books at great prices!

Do not keep those old text books in the cupboard – keep your eyes peeled over the coming days to find out how to sell the books you no longer need, and purchase some of next year’s books second hand. It’s great value, eco-friendly, convenient...and it helps support the School libraries!

Dear Parents,

We are once again carrying out our annual survey of your opinions of the School, and would be very grateful if you could spare a few minutes to complete the survey. You can do this by clicking on the link below.

We value your opinions and I can assure you we read every response carefully. Last year’s survey had a strong response from the school community, and has informed many of the decisions we have made in the last year about the day to day running of the School, as well as our long term plans.

The survey questions are based on those provided to schools by the Federal Government body ACARA, but we have also included an open response for any comments that you would like to make. Students in Years 4 and up will also be asked to complete a survey, and an analysis of the survey responses will be provided in the annual school review.

I would be grateful if you could find the time to complete the survey by Friday 13 November 2015. If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact the Director of Teaching and Learning, Mr John Tuckfield, on 9835 1777 or jwt@cgs.vic.edu.au.

I thank you in anticipation of your participation in this survey.

Yours sincerely

News from the Farms

Kangarooobie (home to the beef)

Make hay while the sun shines (and while the rain doesn’t fall). We are probably three weeks ahead of our normal hay season but the long term forecast is for very little rain so we have had to cut all we have. Thanks to all the people who did a rain dance for us but unfortunately it didn’t work.

The piglets are growing rapidly and will be perfect for Christmas hams (and bacon) so look out for the new products in December.

Grassy Plains (home to the lamb)

As predicted this Spring has been far too hot and dry; I have heard many unwelcome comparisons to the 1982/83 drought in the past few weeks. We have been planning for this for most of the year so, while it is not pleasant, we will get through and hope for a better year next year (predictions for next year are far better at this stage).

One of the very disappointing consequences of the drought is the migration of my beloved pair of Brolgas. These magnificent birds arrived in the area after the floods of 2010/11. Since then we have seen the same pair feeding across the farm; we assume they breed on a neighbouring property that has some big wetlands. Unfortunately, the wetlands have all but dried up and the Brolgas have not been seen for a few weeks now; they will have migrated looking for more permanent water. I am surprised by how much I miss coming into a paddock and seeing them there. I have been known to drop everything and just watch them for a good amount of time. Their absence may good for my productivity on the farm but I hope they return soon.

New products: Salt Kitchen Charcuterie sausages & cured meats

This month sees us add a whole new range of gourmet pork sausages and cured meats from our friend Mick Nunn at Salt Kitchen Charcuterie in Ballarat. Mick is very picky about the ingredients he uses and it shows in the products.

Recipe: Toulouse Sausage

In Gascony they sell sausages by the length. Toulouse sausages come in a coil to fit in a medium sized frying pan. Simply cook each side and serve them in the pan accompanied by good bread and your favourite selection of pickles, relishes and dips.

AUSTRALIAN YOUTH HUMANITIES FORUM
Hosted by the Australian Collaboratory for Architectural History, Urban and Cultural Heritage
University of Melbourne, January 20 & 21 2016.

Part festival of ideas, part careers fair, the Australian Youth Humanities Forum is an exciting initiative that offers a Humanities counterpart to the highly successful National Youth Science Forum. Hosted by the Australian Collaboratory for Architectural History, Urban and Cultural Heritage at the University of Melbourne, the Forum will bring together 130 participants (comprising Year 11 and 12 students, current undergraduates and professionals working in humanities-related fields) for two free days of career presentations, small-group discussions, plenary lectures, and mentoring sessions.

“While I was always told that an arts degree can take you anywhere, I hadn't actually been able to see that in action. The speakers, who had pursued a multitude of career pathways, demonstrated to me the true diversity of studying the humanities”

2014 Forum participant

The Forum addresses a substantial need affecting many high school students across Australia: how can a degree in the humanities be used to build a career which effects social change? Participants will be exposed to a thought-provoking exchange of ideas with some of Australia’s leading public thinkers and humanities practitioners through keynote lectures addressing the relationship between creativity, critical thinking and citizenship. The 2016 program will build on the exciting line up featured in 2014, which included author Alice Pung, philosopher and writer Raimond Gaita and leading public intellectual Robert Manne.

To support students who may not otherwise be able to attend for financial reasons, Janet Clarke Hall, a Residential College of the University of Melbourne, is generously providing 15 funded residential positions. Overnight accommodation between the two days, as well as dinner allowance, will be provided. Priority will be given to rural students for the residential positions, however travel bursaries are also available for local students.

Founded in 2014 by Bridget Vincent, a then McKenzie Postdoctoral Research Fellow in English Literature at the University of Melbourne, the 2016 Forum has been made possible by an Equity Innovation Grant from the University of Melbourne, and the generous support of The General Sir John Monash Foundation and Janet Clarke Hall.
